++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
A sunny start but cloudier for the afternoon.

Today:
A frosty start but lots of sunshine for most places. Turning cloudier from the north through the afternoon with some outbreaks of rain and, perhaps, a little sleet or snow, mainly over hills. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloud and rain quickly moving south through the evening, leaving clear skies behind. Temperatures dropping off under these clear intervals, with a widespread, locally sharp, frost soon developing. Minimum temperature -5 deg C (23 deg F).

Monday:
Very chilly to begin with some hazy sunshine. Remaining dry with occasional sunny spells, the best of these in the east. Still feeling rather cold through the day. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Windier again by Tuesday with outbreaks of rain, but also feeling a bit milder. Blustery and showery on Wednesday, though turning colder again. Showers easing through Thursday.
